

Ames Area Civil Rights Advisory Committee Survey

Why did you choose to attend today's Ames Area Civil Rights Advisory Committee (AACRAC) presentation?

Do you make an effort to attend the presentations? What can the committee do to make the presentations more convenient for you to attend?

What other AACRAC presentations have you attended (See list of presentations below)? Feel free to make any comments on any of the observances that you attended. You may also comment on the posters.

Month	Observance	Presentation*
October 2004	Nat'l Disability Employment	Posters Only – No Presentation
November 2004	Nat'l Native American Heritage Veteran's Day (11 th)	The Native American Windtalkers
December 2004	None
January 2005	MLK Day (21st)	Martin Luther King "I Have a Dream"
February 2005	Nat'l African-American History	The Murder of Emmitt Till
March 2005	Nat'l Women's History	Various Posters of Women in Science – No Presentation
May 2005	Nat'l Asian/Pacific American Heritage	Becoming American: The Chinese Experience Part I and II
June/July 2005	None

* Posters are displayed for each observance. When there is no observance for particular months the committee displays diversity posters.

Please write down any comments for previous presentations that you remember and are not listed above.

Did you participate in "Bring your daughters and sons to work day (April 28, 2005)? If you did not participate, please answer why not?

Please comment on what you would like to see the committee do differently or to continue to do?

How would you rate the Civil Rights Committee on doing its job of informing fellow employees about the observances? Please circle a rating and explain your rating.

Poor Satisfactory Good Very Informative

Do you feel that the presentations and posters help others to have a greater appreciation for the observances and diversity? Why or Why not?

Please list any suggestions for videos or other presentations that you would like to have the Civil Rights Committee work on.

The Ames Area Civil Rights Advisory Committee greatly appreciates your input.

Sincerely,

The Civil Rights Committee Members